

Fifty-fifth Legislature
Second Regular Session

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AMENDMENTS TO H.B. 2604
(Reference to printed bill)

1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

2 "Section 1. Section 13-3624, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4       13-3624. Emergency orders of protection

5       A. In ALL counties ~~with a population of one hundred fifty thousand~~
6 ~~persons or more IN THIS STATE, the presiding judge of the superior court,~~
7 ~~during the hours that the courts are closed, shall make available on a~~
8 ~~rotating basis a~~ ANY judge, justice of the peace, magistrate or 9 commissioner ~~who shall~~ MAY issue emergency orders of protection by 10 telephone.

11       B. ~~In counties with a population of less than one hundred fifty~~ 12 ~~thousand persons, a judge, justice of the peace, magistrate or commissioner~~
13 ~~may issue an emergency order by telephone.~~ The court, within twenty-four 14 hours after a defendant is arrested for an act of domestic violence, shall 15 register a certified copy of the release order with the sheriff's office of 16 the county in which the order was issued. The court shall notify the 17 sheriff's office of material changes in the release order, if the 18 conditions of the release order are no longer in effect and when the 19 charges are resolved. The sheriff in each county shall maintain a central 20 repository for release orders so that the existence and validity of the 21 orders can be easily verified. The law enforcement agency shall advise 22 domestic violence victims where the victim may verify the registration and 23 conditions of a release order.

24       C. The judge, justice of the peace, magistrate or commissioner who 25 is authorized to issue emergency orders of protection may issue a written

1 or oral ex parte emergency order of protection if a peace officer states 2 that the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is in 3 immediate and present danger of domestic violence based on an allegation of 4 a recent incident of actual domestic violence pursuant to section 13-3601,
5 subsection A.

6 D. An emergency order of protection may include any of the 7 following:

8 1. The defendant may be enjoined from committing a violation of one 9 or more of the offenses included in domestic violence.

10 2. One party may be granted the use and exclusive possession of the 11 parties' residence on a showing that there is reasonable cause to believe 12 that physical harm may otherwise result.

13 3. The defendant may be restrained from contacting the plaintiff and 14 coming near the residence, place of employment or school of the plaintiff 15 or other specifically designated locations or persons on a showing that 16 there is reasonable cause to believe that physical harm may otherwise 17 result.

18 4. If the court finds that the defendant may inflict bodily injury 19 or death on the plaintiff, the defendant may be prohibited from possessing 20 or purchasing a firearm for the duration of the order.

21 E. An emergency order of protection expires at the close of the next 22 day of judicial business following the day of issue or seventy-two hours 23 after issuance, whichever is longer, unless otherwise continued by the 24 court.

25 F. A judge, justice of the peace, magistrate or commissioner may 26 issue an oral emergency order of protection pursuant to subsection C of 27 this section on request of the alleged victim, if there is a finding that a 28 person's life or health is in imminent danger. If a person is either 29 temporarily or permanently unable to request an order, a third party may 30 request an order of protection on behalf of the plaintiff. After the 31 request, the judicial officer shall determine if the third party is an 32 appropriate requesting party for the plaintiff. The judicial officer who

1       issues an oral emergency order of protection shall document the issuance of 2       the order as soon as practicable. The officer who receives the verbal
3       order shall write and sign the order. The emergency order shall be served 4       on the defendant, and a copy shall be given to the protected party. The 5       emergency order shall be filed as soon as practicable after its issuance.
6       The law enforcement agency shall file a certificate of service with the 7       court and shall register the emergency order with the national crime
8       information center as soon as practicable. If a person who is named in the 9       order and who has not received personal service of the order but has 10      received actual notice of the existence and substance of the order commits 11      an act that violates the order, the person is subject to any penalty for 12      the violation.

13           G. The availability of an emergency order of protection is not 14      affected by either party leaving the residence.

15           H. A law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction to enforce an 16      emergency order of protection shall enforce the emergency order when it has 17      reasonable cause to believe that the order has been violated.

18           I. Failure of a law enforcement agency to enforce an emergency order 19      of protection pursuant to this section does not give rise to civil 20      liability except pursuant to section 12-820.02."
