(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Study committee on missing and murdered indigenous
3 peoples; membership; duties; report; delayed
4 repeal

5 A. The study committee on missing and murdered indigenous peoples
6 is established consisting of the following members:

7 1. Three members of the house of representatives who are of
8 indigenous descent or who attend meetings and actively work on issues
9 relating to indigenous peoples. The speaker of the house of 10 representatives shall appoint these members. The appointed representatives
11 shall select by a majority vote one representative to serve as chairperson
12 of the study committee.

13 2. Three members of the senate who are of indigenous descent or who 14 attend meetings and actively work on issues relating to indigenous 15 peoples. The president of the senate shall appoint these members. The 16 appointed senators shall select by a majority vote one senator to serve as 17 vice chairperson of the study committee.

18 3. The attorney general or the attorney general's designee.

19 4. The director of the department of public safety or the 20 director's designee.

21 5. The following members who are appointed by the speaker of the 22 house of representatives:

23 (a) One county attorney and one sheriff from a county with a
24 population of eight hundred fifty thousand persons or more.

25 (b) One victim advocate.

26 (c) One member who works with the Phoenix or Tucson Indian center.

27 (d) One member who works in the Phoenix area Indian health
28 services.

29 6. The following members who are appointed by the president of the 30 senate:

31 (a) One representative of a tribal government.

32 (b) One attorney general or judge from a tribal jurisdiction.

33 (c) One social worker who works with a tribal, statewide or local 34 organization that provides services to indigenous peoples.

35 B. The study committee shall meet quarterly or more frequently as 36 the chairperson deems necessary.

37 C. Committee members are not eligible to receive compensation, but 38 members who are appointed by the governor are eligible for reimbursement
39 of expenses under title 38, chapter 4, article 2, Arizona Revised
40 Statutes.

41 D. The study committee shall:

42 1. Conduct a comprehensive study to determine how this state can 43 reduce and end violence against indigenous peoples in this state.

- 1 2. Continue to work with law enforcement to track and collect data
2 on violence against indigenous peoples, including data on missing and
3 murdered indigenous peoples.
- 4 3. Continue to review policies and practices that impact violence
5 against indigenous peoples, such as child welfare policies and practices.
- 6 4. Continue to review prosecutorial trends and practices relating 7 to crimes of gender violence against indigenous peoples.
- 8 5. Continue to gather data on the prevalence and contextual 9 characteristics of violence against indigenous peoples, including
10 variations by gender, age and sexual identity.
- 11 6. Propose measures to ensure access to culturally appropriate
12 victim services for indigenous peoples who have been victims of violence.
- 13 7. Gather information to understand the lived experiences among 14 indigenous peoples surrounding missing and murdered indigenous peoples in 15 an effort to ensure policy recommendations are culturally accurate.
- 16 8. Propose legislation to address issues identified by the study 17 committee.
- 18 9. Submit a report regarding the study committee's activities and 19 recommendations for administrative or legislative action on or before
20 December 1, 2023, December 1, 2024 and December 1, 2025 to the governor,
21 the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of 22 representatives and provide a copy of these reports to the secretary of 23 state.
- 24 E. The study committee may use the monies appropriated to the 25 attorney general for the study committee by Laws 2021, chapter 408,
26 section 11.
- 27 F. This section is repealed from and after September 30, 2026.
