AN ACT

ESTABLISHING THE RURAL AND TRIBAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND COOPERATION
STUDY COMMITTEE.

(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Rural and tribal economic development and
3 cooperation study committee; membership; duties;
4 report; delayed repeal

5 A. The rural and tribal economic development and cooperation study
6 committee is established consisting of the following members:

7 1. Two members of the house of representatives who are appointed by 8 the speaker of the house of representatives and who are members of 9 different political parties. The speaker of the house of representatives 10 shall designate one of these members to serve as cochairperson of the 11 committee.

12 2. Two members of the senate who are appointed by the president of 13 the senate and who are members of different political parties. The 14 president of the senate shall designate one of these members to serve as 15 cochairperson of the committee.

16 3. The director of the department of revenue or the director's
17 designee.

18 4. The following members who are appointed by the speaker of the 19 house of representatives:

20 (a) A representative of an organization that is engaged in regional 21 rural or tribal economic planning and development in a county with a
22 population of less than nine hundred eighty thousand persons.

23 (b) A representative of a federally recognized Indian tribe with a
24 population of more than one hundred thousand persons.

25 (c) A representative of a nonprofit organization that focuses on 26 tribal economic development and commerce.

27 5. The following members who are appointed by the president of the 28 senate:

29 (a) A representative of a nonprofit organization that serves Indian
30 tribes and whose board of directors is composed entirely of the elected
31 leadership of more than two federally recognized Indian tribes.

32 (b) A representative of a federally recognized Indian tribe with a
33 population of less than one hundred thousand persons.

34 (c) A representative of a public university with experience in 35 rural or tribal economic planning and development.

36 B. The committee shall research and make recommendations for 37 improving rural and tribal economic development and opportunities for this 38 state, counties, cities and towns to cooperate with Indian tribes in 39 regional economic planning and development activities.

40 C. The committee may hold hearings, conduct fact-finding tours and 41 take testimony from witnesses who may assist the study committee in 42 fulfilling the committee's responsibilities. All hearings shall be open
43 to the public.

44 D. The legislature shall provide staff and support services to the 45 committee.

1 E. Committee members are not eligible to receive compensation, but
2 are eligible for reimbursement of expenses pursuant to title 38, chapter
3 4, article 2, Arizona Revised Statutes.

4 F. On or before December 31, 2023, the committee shall submit a
5 report of it's findings and recommendations to the governor, the president
6 of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives and shall 7 provide a copy of this report to the secretary of state.

8 G. This section is repealed from and after September 30, 2024.
