14 termination penalties or fees if the tenant provides to the landlord a 15 written notice requesting release from the rental agreement with a

8 victim.

9 C. The tenant may terminate the rental agreement pursuant to this 10 section only if the actions, events or circumstances that resulted in the 11 tenant being a victim of domestic violence as defined in section 13-3601 12 or sexual assault pursuant to section 13-1406 occurred within the 13 thirty-day period immediately preceding the written notice of termination 14 to the landlord, unless waived by the landlord.

15 D. If the tenant terminates the rental agreement as prescribed by 16 this section and if the tenant is solely or jointly liable on the rental 17 agreement, the tenant is liable only for rent owed or paid through the 18 date of the lease termination plus any previous obligations outstanding on 19 that date. The amount due from the tenant shall be paid to the landlord 20 on or before the date the tenant vacates the dwelling. If the tenant has

38 provision in the rental agreement, the landlord may refuse to provide a 39 key that opens the new lock to the person named in an order of protection 40 or a departmental report pursuant to subsection A of this section.

41 G. A landlord shall refuse to provide access to the dwelling to 42 reclaim property to any tenant if the tenant is the person named in an 43 order of protection or a departmental report pursuant to subsection A of 44 this section who has been served with an order of protection naming that 45 tenant as the defendant and the landlord has received a copy of the order

12 report pursuant to subsection A of this section is a party to the rental 13 agreement, and the person named in an order of protection or a 14 departmental report pursuant to subsection A of this section may be 15 civilly liable for all economic losses incurred by a landlord for the 16 domestic violence or sexual assault early lease termination. This civil 17 liability includes unpaid rent, early lease termination fees, costs to 18 repair damage to the premises and any reductions or waivers of rent
19 previously granted to the tenant who was the victim of domestic violence 20 or sexual assault.

21 J. If there are multiple tenants who are parties to a rental 22 agreement that has been terminated under this section, the tenancy for 23 those tenants also terminates. The tenants who are not the victims of 24 domestic violence or sexual assault, excluding the person named in an 25 order of protection or a departmental report pursuant to subsection A of 26 this section that caused the termination of the lease pursuant to this 27 section, may be released from any financial obligations due under the 28 previously existing rental agreement and the remaining tenants may be 29 allowed to enter into a new lease with the landlord if the tenants meet 30 all current application requirements.

31 K. An emergency order of protection or a protective order that is 32 issued to a resident of a rental property automatically applies to the 33 entire residential rental property in which the tenant has a rental 34 agreement.

35 L. This section does not limit a landlord's right to terminate a 36 lease pursuant to section 33-1368 against the victim for actions unrelated 37 to the act of domestic violence or sexual assault.

38 M. A landlord is not liable for any actions taken in good faith
39 pursuant to this section.
