

Senate Engrossed

Mel Hannah; death resolution

State of Arizona
Senate
Fifty-sixth Legislature
First Regular Session
2023

SENATE RESOLUTION 1004

A RESOLUTION

ON THE DEATH OF MEL J. HANNAH.

(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Mel J. Hannah, former Flagstaff City Council and Coconino County
2 Board of Supervisors member, passed away on January 8, 2023 at the age 3 of 84.

4 Born in Winslow, Arizona, Mr. Hannah graduated from Winslow High 5 School in 1956, where he received a music and football scholarship to 6 Eastern Arizona College (EAC). After two years at EAC, Mr. Hannah
7 attended Northern Arizona University, called Arizona State College (ASC)
8 at the time, for two years and played as a member of the ASC football 9 team.

10 After college, Mr. Hannah settled in Flagstaff, Arizona and worked 11 as a member of the United States Forest Service and as the assistant 12 director of the Northern Arizona Council of Governments, where he was 13 involved in delivering services to low-income communities, communities of 14 color and rural communities.

15 In 1973, Mr. Hannah was elected as the first African American on the 16 Flagstaff City Council, where he served for over twelve years. After 17 leaving the Flagstaff City Council, Mr. Hannah was elected as the first 18 African American on the Coconino County Board of Supervisors and served 19 for six years.

20 During his time in Flagstaff, Mr. Hannah served as the president of 21 the Flagstaff Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of 22 Colored People (NAACP) and as vice chairman of the NAACP Arizona State
23 Conference. After moving to Phoenix, Mr. Hannah worked for Governor Fife 24 Symington as the assistant director of the Equal Opportunity Office and 25 later as the director of community outreach and job development for the 26 Greater Phoenix Urban League, which supports minority families and 27 underserved populations by providing connections to employment, housing, 28 job training, health care and education.

29 Despite the demands of his career, Mr. Hannah served as a true 30 servant leader and chaired many civic committees in order to make his 31 community and state a better place in which to live and work. He was 32 proud of his involvement with establishing the Arizona African American 33 Commission, eventually serving as a commissioner, and his service as 34 chairman of the Arizona African American Legislative Days for 21 years.

35 Mr. Hannah believed "there are two important days in your life. One 36 is the day you are born and the next one is why. And so to me, civic 37 engagement, civic engagement, civic engagement became the answer to that 38 why in terms of improving the quality of life for everyone. That to me
39 has been the reason I recognize my second day."

40 Therefore

41 Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Arizona:

42 That the Members of the Senate express sincere regret at the passing 43 of Mel J. Hannah and extend their deepest sympathies and condolences to 44 his family and many friends.