3 to read:

4 36-446.14. Referral agencies; assisted living facilities and 5 assisted living homes; disclosure;
6 acknowledgement; fee; notice; requirements;
7 civil penalty; definitions

8 A. A referral agency shall disclose, in the form prescribed by 9 subsection D of this section, to any prospective resident or 10 representative of a prospective resident at the time or before any 11 referral is made for care at an assisted living facility or assisted 12 living home all of the following:

13 1. The existence of any current business relationship or any common 14 ownership or control and any other financial, business, management or 15 familial relationship that exists between the referral agency and the 16 assisted living facility or assisted living home.

17 2. That the assisted living facility or assisted living home pays a 18 fee to the referral agency in connection with the referral.

19 3. The amount of the fee, if determined, or a good faith estimate 20 of the fee, if not determined, that the assisted living facility or 21 assisted living home will pay to the referral agency. The referral agency 22 may describe the fee as a dollar amount or as a percentage of the 23 prospective resident's first month's rent and care charges at the facility 24 or home.

25 B. After the first instance of the referral agency providing the 26 disclosure required by subsection A of this section, the referral agency 27 shall request from the prospective resident or representative of a 28 prospective resident an acknowledgement of receiving the disclosure in the 29 same manner and form in which the disclosure was delivered.

30 C. The prospective resident may terminate all services of the 31 referral agency for the prospective resident at any time, including the 32 use of the prospective resident's personal information, by providing a 33 written or electronic termination notice to the referral agency. If the 34 prospective resident delivers a termination notice, the referral agency is 35 not entitled to any fee for the resident's move-in after the date of the 36 termination notice unless either of the following applies:

37 1. The assisted living facility or assisted living home chosen by 38 the resident within twelve months after the date of termination was 39 specifically identified and referred to the resident after evaluating the 40 prospective resident's profile and requests before the resident delivered 41 the notice of termination.

42 2. The referral agency provides documentation to the assisted 43 living facility or assisted living home that the resident communicated 44 with the referral agency for referral services before the resident's 45 admission to the assisted living facility or assisted living home.

1 D. The referral agency's written, electronic or oral disclosure
