1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Section 13-901, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4 13-901. Probation

5 A. If a person who has been convicted of an offense is eligible for 6 probation, the court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence
7 and, if so, shall without delay place the person on intensive probation
8 supervision pursuant to section 13-913 or supervised or unsupervised
9 probation on such terms and conditions as the law requires and the court 10 deems appropriate, including participation in any programs authorized in 11 title 12, chapter 2, article 11. If a person is not eligible for 12 probation, imposition or execution of sentence shall not be suspended or 13 delayed. If the court imposes probation, it may also impose a fine as 14 authorized by chapter 8 of this title. If probation is granted the court 15 shall impose a condition that the person waive extradition for any 16 probation revocation procedures and it shall order restitution pursuant to 17 section 13-603, subsection C where there is a victim who has suffered 18 economic loss. When granting probation to an adult the court, as a 19 condition of probation, shall assess a monthly fee of not less than $65
20 unless, after determining the inability of the probationer to pay the fee, 21 the court assesses a lesser fee. This fee is not subject to any 22 surcharge. In justice and municipal courts the fee shall only be assessed 23 when the person is placed on supervised probation. For persons placed on 24 probation in the superior court, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of the 25 superior court and the clerk of the court shall pay all monies collected 26 from this fee to the county treasurer for deposit in the adult probation 27 services fund established by section 12-267. For persons placed on 28 supervised probation in the justice court, the fee shall be paid to the 29 justice court and the justice court shall transmit all of the monies to 30 the county treasurer for deposit in the adult probation services fund
31 established by section 12-267. For persons placed on supervised probation 32 in the municipal court, the fee shall be paid to the municipal court. The 33 municipal court shall transmit all of the monies to the city treasurer who 34 shall transmit the monies to the county treasurer for deposit in the adult 35 probation services fund established by section 12-267. Any amount 36 assessed pursuant to this subsection shall be used to supplement monies 37 used for the salaries of adult probation and surveillance officers and for 38 support of programs and services of the superior court adult probation 39 departments.

40 B. The period of probation shall be determined according to section 41 13-902, except that if a person is released pursuant to section 31-233,
42 subsection B and community supervision is waived pursuant to section 43 13-603, subsection K, the court shall extend the period of probation by 44 the amount of time the director of the state department of corrections 45 approves for the inmate's temporary release.

1 C. The court, in its discretion, may issue a warrant for the 2 rearrest of the defendant and may modify or add to the conditions or, if 3 the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, may 4 revoke probation in accordance with the rules of criminal procedure at any 5 time before the expiration or termination of the period of probation. If 6 the court revokes the defendant's probation and the defendant is serving 7 more than one probationary term concurrently, the court may sentence the 8 person to terms of imprisonment to be served consecutively.

9 D. At any time during the probationary term of the person released 10 on probation, any probation officer, without warrant or other process and 11 at any time until the final disposition of the case, may rearrest any 12 person and bring the person before the court.

13 E. The court, on its own initiative or on application of the 14 probationer, after notice and an opportunity to be heard for the 15 prosecuting attorney and, on request, the victim, may terminate the period
16 of probation or intensive probation and discharge the defendant at a time 17 earlier than that originally imposed if in the court's opinion the ends of 18 justice will be served and if the conduct of the defendant on probation 19 warrants it.

20 F. When granting probation the court may require that the defendant
21 be imprisoned in the county jail at whatever time or intervals, 22 consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall determine, within the 23 period of probation, as long as the period actually spent in confinement 24 does not exceed one year or the maximum period of imprisonment allowed 25 under chapter 7 of this title, whichever is the shorter.

26 G. If the defendant is placed on lifetime probation and has served 27 one year in the county jail as a term of probation, the court may require 28 that the defendant be additionally imprisoned in the county jail at 29 whatever time or intervals, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall 30 determine, within the period of probation if the defendant's probation is 31 revoked by the court and the defendant is subsequently reinstated on 32 probation. The period actually spent in confinement as a term of being 33 reinstated on probation shall not exceed one year or, when including the 34 initial one-year period of incarceration imposed as a term of probation, 35 the maximum period of imprisonment allowed under chapter 7 of this title,
36 whichever is shorter.

38 fix the amount of restitution and the manner of performance pursuant to 39 chapter 8 of this title.

41 of sentencing and on the record the factual and legal reasons in support 42 of each sentence.

43 J. If the defendant meets the criteria set forth in section
44 13-901.01 or 13-3422, the court may place the defendant on probation
45 pursuant to either section. If a defendant is placed on probation

1 pursuant to section 13-901.01 or 13-3422, the court may impose any term of 2 probation that is authorized pursuant to this section and that is not in 3 violation of section 13-901.01.

4 K. If the court imposes a term of probation, the court may require 5 the defendant to report to a probation officer. The court or the 6 defendant's probation officer may allow the defendant to fulfill a 7 reporting requirement through remote reporting. The probation officer 8 shall take into consideration and make accommodations for the 9 probationer's work schedule, family caregiver obligations, substance abuse
10 treatment or recovery program, mental health treatment, transportation
11 availability and medical care requirements before setting the reporting 12 time and location requirements for the probationer.
