Representative Matt Gress Celebrates Enactment of Bill to Financially Assist Mobile Home Residents Who Are Forced to Relocate

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Arizona State Representative Matt Gress celebrated the enactment of HB 2381, a bill that he sponsored to increase disbursements from the Mobile Home Relocation Fund to financially assist Arizonans who are forced to relocate their mobile home. The Governor signed the bill today. Representative Gress’s bill received wide bipartisan support from both legislative chambers, and because it included an emergency clause, the new law takes immediate effect.

Statement from Representative Matt Gress:

“I’m pleased to see HB 2381 signed into law today. The legislation I introduced will provide much needed and immediate financial relief to Arizona families and seniors living in mobile homes who face an uncertain future about where they will live.

“Numerous media reports have covered the recent situation in three West Valley mobile home parks, where residents are being forced to relocate in the coming days. HB 2381 significantly increases the amount of financial support the State of Arizona will provide to either move a mobile home or relocate if that is not possible.

“As someone who spent his childhood growing up in a single-wide mobile home, this bill was personal, as our family and many others living in mobile homes have few extra dollars to spare, especially in a life-altering event like these park closures.

“I want to thank my colleagues on both sides of the aisle for passing this commonsense measure with an emergency clause, and especially Representative Cesar Aguilar (D-26), Senator Anna Hernandez (D-24), and Senator Steve Kaiser (R-2) for their leadership and advocacy. I also want to acknowledge the Arizona Department of Housing’s great work as well.”
