Rep. Quang Nguyen Selected for Distinguished “2023 Emerging Legislative Leaders Program”

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Arizona State Representative Quang Nguyen announced this week that he has been selected to participate in the 2023 Emerging Legislative Leaders Program, a collaborative effort of the State Legislative Leaders Foundation (SLLF) and the University of Virginia’s Darden School of Business Administration designed specifically for the next generation of leaders in America’s state legislatures.

The distinguished program seeks to educate and inspire the nation’s current and future state legislative leaders to excellence, broaden perspectives, and instill a clear understanding of their responsibilities as custodians of the public’s trust.

As part of the upcoming program, Representative Nguyen will join an exemplary, bipartisan class of 55 of the best and brightest state legislators from 46 states from across the nation in Charlottesville this July.

SLLF is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to professional development for our nation’s current and future state legislative leaders. Through its Emerging Leaders Program, SLLF offers mentoring to first- and second-term legislators who have been identified by their peers as future leaders.

Quang Nguyen is a Republican member of the Arizona House of Representatives serving Legislative District 1 in Yavapai County and is Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. Follow him on Twitter at @QuangNguyenAZ.
