State Representative Quang Nguyen Earns “Legislator of the Year” Award for Defense of Second Amendment

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – State Representative Quang Nguyen was recognized by the Arizona Citizens Defense League (AzCDL) as their 2024 “Legislator of the Year” for his steadfast commitment to protecting Second Amendment rights. The award was presented during the AzCDL’s 19th annual meeting in Phoenix on Saturday, October 19.

As Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, Representative Nguyen plays a key role in advancing legislation that defends the rights of gun owners in Arizona, while blocking efforts aimed at undermining those protections.

“I’m deeply honored to receive this recognition from the Arizona Citizens Defense League,” said Representative Nguyen. “Protecting the Second Amendment is a responsibility I take seriously, and I will continue to stand with the citizens of Arizona to ensure their rights are not infringed upon. The AzCDL plays a vital role in protecting our constitutional freedoms of firearm owners across our state. I’m proud to work alongside this important organization in this ongoing effort to safeguard the liberties of all Arizonans.”

The AzCDL, a non-profit, non-partisan grassroots organization, advocates for the preservation of individual rights as outlined in the U.S. and Arizona Constitutions. Representative Nguyen’s leadership and dedication to these principles have been instrumental in preserving the freedoms that Arizonans hold dear.
